Since our shelf life information is based on experience and not specific testing, Dow recommends that the above-mentioned product(s) be used within the above designated time frame, which is from the date of manufacture. While the rheological properties are maintained for longer than the recommended shelf life, the product may begin to discolor with age.

Several factors such as processing conditions, addition of other ingredients, antioxidant consumption, and environmental conditions could affect the long-term stability of articles made from the above-mentioned product families.

Dow makes no certification or guarantees with respect to the suitability of our products in any application, regardless of the age of the product. No warranties are given; all implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose are expressly excluded.
